Dear parents and carers

In order to avoid speculation, maintain family privacy and manage administrative tasks, the school does not inform parents about individual cases of positive COVID tests in classes. In line with current public health guidance children are still required to attend school in such circumstances unless they develop symptoms in which case a PCR test should be booked. Where the number of cases reaches a threshold which is set by the London Coronavirus Response Centre (LCRC) then parents will be informed and advised their child takes a PCR test where relevant.

Yours sincerely

Mrs H Rai
